DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This is routine clerical work involving the performance of standard account-keeping practices in maintaining and checking financial accounts and records. The incumbent works under direct supervision on routine assignments that are done in accordance with defined procedures. Detailed instructions are provided for any new or unusual assignments. The work is reviewed by observation, crosschecks or by the immediate supervisor and by other steps in the account-keeping process. This position differs from Senior Account Clerk/Typist by virtue of the limited complexity of the work and lack of supervisory responsibility. This specification encompasses two titles; Account Clerk and Account Clerk Typist. The main difference between the two is that an Account Clerk Typist spends a substantial amount of time operating an alphanumeric keyboard such as a typewriter, word processor, or personal computer in the performance of their duties. Accuracy is valued over speed; speed is not a significant factor in the duties of the position. Account Clerks and Account Clerk Typists will perform all related duties as required.
