- Performs data entry to the third-party vendor website to maintain accounts;
- Administers the health, dental and vision insurance plans;
- Manages Worker's Compensation claims, NYS and other retirement programs, the deferred compensation plan, an employee wellness program, a flexible benefit plan, an Employee Assistance Program, and other specific benefits;
- Advises dependents and survivors of continuation rights in benefit areas as necessary;
- Answers benefit questions for management, employees, dependents, survivors, retirees, hospitals, doctors, lawyers or various providers;
- Collaborates with other personnel on changes which may affect monthly bills from health insurance carriers, follows up with carrier and/or provider on enrollment problems;
- Formulates, implements and monitors procedural policies related to health insurance, safety, claims and loss settlement;
- Analyzes health/dental benefit programs and costs/exposure and recommends programs to contain costs and reduce liability;
- Conducts investigation of claims for 207-c, disability and workers compensation incident reports and develops supportive documentation for claims processing;
- Performs Civil Service law Section 71 or Section 72 analysis to determine cumulative or continuous absence based on disability and notifies the Commissioner when a situation meets the criteria that would warrant termination under Section 73 of the Civil Service law;
- May support the County in negotiations by designing and costing out benefit proposals and recommending changes to existing programs;

- Acts as a consultant for a wide variety of employee-employer problems;
- Maintains records to provide for health insurance premium payments;
- Notifies retirees of changes relative to coverage premiums, etc.;
- Assists with claim filing or research when questions arise on payments, changes, benefits program provisions, etc.;
- Oversees all aspects of the County Worker's Compensation risk management program;
- Coordinates COBRA program with contract agency when necessary;
- Works with all benefit carriers to monitor costs which effect experience ratings, premiums and/or contract charges, employees' claims and/or payments;
- Completes various periodic reports and forms required by benefit carriers;
- Assists employees with establishing correct service time and wage computation and other technical advice when filing for retirement benefits, explains options when required;
- May Develop and conduct weekly or bi-weekly orientation sessions for all new employees, updating material as necessary to provide technical information relative to benefit areas and negotiated or legally mandated benefits and reviews appropriate policies;
- Develops Wellness programs in consultation with other members of Wellness Committee, assists with communication of such programs;
- Maintains reference materials and updates, relative to benefits areas;
- Schedules and assists providers with informational sessions, enrollment meetings;
- Works with all departments to secure timely and correct filing of workers' compensation claims;
- Performs follow-up with employees, medical providers and carriers, including filing supplemental forms to assure that employees receive timely and correct benefits and reimbursement for out-of-pocket expense;
- Requests wage reimbursements as appropriate, and computes reinstatement of
- fringe time if applicable;
- Participates in periodic salary and benefits surveys by selection of sources, analysis of data, preparation of tabulations and recommendation of pay rates;
- Conducts studies and analyzes a variety of reports and makes recommendations
- to the appropriate management staff.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

- Thorough knowledge of policies, procedures, negotiated provisions and legal requirements in all benefit areas;
- Thorough knowledge of personnel procedures to allow correct interpretation and application of benefit areas of negotiated union contracts;
- Thorough knowledge of laws, rules and regulations pertaining to employee benefit programs;
- Thorough knowledge of office technology, procedures and equipment;
- Good knowledge of principles, practices and techniques of personnel administration;
- Working knowledge of public administration as it applies to local government;
- Working knowledge of English and statistical techniques;
- Ability to communicate effectively and accurately, both orally and in writing;
- Ability to understand, and interpret complex written material, including Federal and State laws, contract language, collective bargaining agreements, etc.;
- Ability to prepare, maintain and follow up on independent correspondence, necessary forms, reports and records as required to enable correct and timely administration of benefit areas;
- Ability to relate well with employees, staff, management, consultants, etc. ;
- Ability to operate a personal computer as required, either with or without reasonable accommodations;
- The employee's physical and mental condition shall be commensurate with the demands of the position, either with or without reasonable accommodations.

PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL DEMANDS:

In respect to the physical demands of this position, there may considerable visual effort and repetitive hand/finger movements associated with the execution of the tasks delegated with this role. The incumbent must be able to accurately manage and manipulate information, using computer software and hardware systems, with or without reasonable accommodations. Otherwise, the position requires only minimal physical effort which, for the most part, is performed while seated or standing at a desk, but can include some walking and/or handling light boxes or supplies. The employee's ability to communicate (verbally and in writing) must be such that they are able to understand and carry out complex detailed instructions and/or share information to ensure adequate delivery of services.

The employee often experiences tight deadlines, rush orders and frequent exposure to distressing human situations. As a result, considerable interpersonal skills are needed to advise and guide program participants on the best use of their benefits and/or to plan and coordinate inter-group cooperation when it comes to coordinating with third-party providers.

The employee must possess the knowledge and ability needed to utilize office equipment, including computer systems, inclusive of necessary software and operating systems, with or without reasonable accommodations. Operation of such machinery requires considerable precision, manual dexterity, knowledge and skill.

There are minimal hazards or risks associated with the performance of this work. The work is performed indoors, in an office setting, in a temperature controlled environment and the incumbent is not generally exposed to disagreeable working conditions.
