DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This position involves responsibility for assisting a department head or administrator by coordinating day-to-day office management and administrative functions. Duties include, but are not limited to, program planning, budgeting, supervision of clerical staff, fiscal management and statistical record-keeping/reporting. An Administrative Assistant – Level 4 is also responsible for relieving the head of a department or major division of administrative details such as calendar management, meeting scheduling and conference arrangements as well as relieving the official of contacts which should properly be made with subordinate staff. The psychological demands of this job are moderate with unpredictable fluctuations in work volume, frequent interruptions, shifting work priority, rush orders and conflicting priorities. At a Level 4, the employee should possess considerable interpersonal skills in order to teach, instruct or advise subordinates. He or she may be required to plan or coordinate inter-group or inter-agency cooperation. Internal contacts may be across departments within the organization and may require professional collaboration on overlapping work projects and issues. External contacts will typically be with the general public and involve the exchange of information in structured situations. The incumbent works under the general supervision of a senior staff member but enjoys considerable autonomy and independent judgment when carrying out the day-to-day activities of the office. Although guidelines and policies are available, many cases require the independent interpretation and application of guidelines or policies to specific situations. Only unusual or very complex matters are referred to the supervisor. The employee may be defined as a lead worker of a group, or be assigned to supervise specific personnel with a unit or section. The incumbent will perform any and all administrative duties that may be assigned.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

- The typical work activities below are illustrative only. Work activities may vary from location to location and no attempt has been made to compile a comprehensive listing of all clerical duties that may be required of an employee in this class. Assignment of appropriate routine clerical duties will be at the discretion of the appointing authority.
- At all times, the employee will provide the highest quality of customer service;
- Develops a professional network and maintains contacts with units with whom an official routinely interacts;
- Assists in the formulation of policies and procedures for the administration of various agency programs;
- Plans and supervises the collection, tabulation and analysis of statistical and financial data;
- Coordinates and supervises the maintenance of agency financial, payroll, personnel and attendance records;
- Supervises the requisition, purchase, receipt and inventory of agency supplies and equipment and maintains inventory records;
- Secures budget estimates from agency units and prepares preliminary draft of budget request;
- Supervises and expedites the preparation of records and reports; Reviews incoming mail and answers general correspondence;
- Participates in professional conference and training program; Explains department or agency functions and activities at meetings with civic groups and community organizations;
- Monitors expenditures to maintain budgetary control;
- Maintains contacts with agency units and other departments and public agencies to assist in solving mutual problems and to develop improved services and public relations;
- Reviews and updates employee job descriptions in cooperation with agency head and other supervisors;
- Supervises assigned clerical staff;
- Performs related work necessary for the efficient execution of administrative functions of the agency.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

- Thorough knowledge of current principles and practices of business administration of various agency programs;
- Thorough knowledge of office terminology, procedures and equipment;
- Thorough knowledge of business arithmetic and English;
- Good knowledge of the organization, functions, laws, policies and regulations of the agency to which assigned;
- Ability to handle routine administrative details independently, including the composition of letters and memoranda;
- Ability to plan, assign and review the work of others;
- Ability to understand and carry out complex oral and written instructions;
- Ability to establish and maintain cooperative relations with the public and other governmental and private agencies;
- Ability to perform close, detail work involving considerable visual effort and strain;
- Good judgment in solving complex clerical and administrative problems;
- Tact and courtesy;

- The employee's physical condition shall be commensurate with the demands of the position.

Complete Scope of the examination and Expanded subtest descriptions:

1. Operations with Letters and Numbers

These questions test for skills and abilities in operations involving alphabetizing, comparing, checking and counting. The questions require you to follow the specific directions given for each question which may involve alphabetizing, comparing, checking and counting given groups of letters and/or numbers.

2. Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

3. Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

4. Office management

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices of planning, organizing and controlling the activities of an office and directing those performing office activities so as to achieve predetermined objectives such as accomplishing office work within reasonable limits of time, effort and cost expenditure. Typical activities may include but will not be restricted to: simplifying and improving procedures, increasing office efficiency, improving the office work environment and controlling office supplies.

5. Working with office records

These questions test your ability to work with office records. The test consists of two or more sets of questions, each set concerning a different problem. Typical record keeping problems might involve the organization or collation of numerical data from several sources; maintaining a record system using running balances; or completion of a table summarizing data using totals, subtotals, averages and percents. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solarpowered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.

Test guide:

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.

CROSS-FILING - APPLYING FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS IN MULTIPLE JURISDICTIONS WHEN EXAMINATIONS ARE SCHEDULED ON THE SAME DATE: When applying for examinations across multiple jurisdictions - all of which are scheduled on the same day - you must submit a Tompkins County Cross-Filing Form. This form must be submitted no later than 4:30 PM on the final filing date of the examination. On this form, list each examination that you are taking and then tell us where you would like to sit. The purpose is to ensure that all of the test materials for the various examinations that you are taking will be available in one location. If you do not provide the cross-filing form to us by the final filing date, we cannot ensure that we can accommodate your desire to cross-file. If any of the examinations are State level examinations, you must sit at the State test center. You will still need to complete the Tompkins County cross-filing form. If sitting at the State site, the State will notify you of when and where to report for your examination(s) and you should bring all admittance letters to the State site. If you are not taking a State examination, bring all admittance letters to your chosen testing site. If you have any question please call Tompkins County Department of Human Resources Department (607) 274-5526. The Cross File form is located at <http://www.tompkins-co.org/personnel/CivilSrvForms/index.html>

FOR RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION AND HANDICAPPED PERSONS: If special arrangements for testing are required, please indicate this on your application.

ALL CANDIDATES FOR EMPLOYMENT FOR POSITIONS IN SCHOOL DISTRICTS AND BOCES GOVERNED BY TOMPKINS COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE MAY HAVE THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL REQUIREMENT. PER CHAPTER 180 OF THE LAWS OF 2000, AND BY REGULATIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, TO BE EMPLOYED IN A POSITION DESIGNATED BY A SCHOOL DISTRICT OR BOCES AS INVOLVING DIRECT CONTACT WITH STUDENTS, A CLEARANCE FOR EMPLOYMENT FROM THE STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT IS REQUIRED.

In conformance with Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duties shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duties in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.â-

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION: Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.
