Whole Health is expanding its in-house therapy team and now hiring full time, part-time, or Per Diem Physical Therapists to support young children in the Early Intervention Program. These flexible positions will focus on providing home-based physical therapy services and evaluations for infants and toddlers currently on the waitlist for care.

We're seeking licensed, compassionate Physical Therapists who are enthusiastic about early motor development and family-centered support. Whether you're available for a few hours each week or are seeking a more consistent part-time caseload, join our dedicated team working to reduce service delays and improve outcomes for young children across Tompkins County.

Posted until filled

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION:

1. Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State approved College or University with a master's degree in physical therapy AND one year of full-time paid post-licensure experience specifically performing physical therapy with children ages birth to three years; OR
2. Any combination of training and experience equal to or greater than that specified in (a) above.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:

At the time of application, the candidate must possess a full license (limited permit to practice is not acceptable) and current registration issued by the New York State Education Department, to practice as a Pediatric Physical Therapist in New York State.

All applicants must possess CPR certification (American Red Cross or American Heart Association) at the time of appointment and maintain such certification for the duration of employment.

All applicants are required to possess a valid New York State Driver's License at the time of application and maintain such license for the duration of employment.

Approved individual providers who deliver early intervention services must demonstrate continued professional development related to their professional field of practice, and on state and municipal policies and procedures of the Early Intervention Program, including participation in NYSDOH sponsored training. Providers shall participate in a minimum of ten clock (10) hours of professional development activities per year. Such professional development activities are not restricted to NYSDOH sponsored training and may include other professional activities necessary for licensure and activities identified by the provider to increase the provider's professional skills and knowledge. Providers must maintain documentation as proof of participation and must share this documentation with agencies that they deliver EIP services for. This documentation must be available at the time of provider monitoring review. New York State sponsored training is available online and free to providers and parents.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This is a professional Physical Therapy position involving responsibility for providing comprehensive evaluation, treatment, and education of a wide variety of services to address the promotion of sensorimotor function through enhancement of musculoskeletal status, neurobehavioral organization, perceptual and motor development, cardiopulmonary status and effective environmental adaptation for infants and children ages birth to three years with congenital, developmental, neuromuscular, skeletal or acquired disorders/delays. This work is performed under the written order of a physician and under the general supervision of the Director or designated supervisor. The Physical Therapist will work collaboratively with a diverse population including physicians, educators, children, their families/caregivers, and Whole Health staff as part of an interdisciplinary team. The employee exercises a high level of autonomy and independent judgment. Contact with children and their families is the primary function of the position. Duties and responsibilities focus on providing direct care to others. High interpersonal skills and understanding are needed to persuade, motivate, or influence others, to facilitate meetings involving important or difficult issues. CROSS-FILING - APPLYING FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS IN MULTIPLE JURISDICTIONS WHEN EXAMINATIONS ARE SCHEDULED ON THE SAME DATE: When applying for examinations across multiple jurisdictions - all of which are scheduled on the same day - you must submit a Tompkins County Cross-Filing Form. This form must be submitted no later than 4:30 PM on the final filing date of the examination. On this form, list each examination that you are taking and then tell us where you would like to sit. The purpose is to ensure that all of the test materials for the various examinations that you are taking will be available in one location. If you do not provide the cross-filing form to us by the final filing date, we cannot ensure that we can accommodate your desire to cross-file. If any of the examinations are State level examinations, you must sit at the State test center. You will still need to complete the Tompkins County cross-filing form. If sitting at the State site, the State will notify you of when and where to report for your examination(s) and you should bring all admittance letters to the State site. If you are not taking a State examination, bring all admittance letters to your chosen testing site. If you have any question please call Tompkins County Department of Human Resources Department (607) 274-5526. The Cross File form is located at <http://www.tompkins-co.org/personnel/CivilSrvForms/index.html>

FOR RELIGIOUS ACCOMMODATION AND HANDICAPPED PERSONS: If special arrangements for testing are required, please indicate this on your application.
