DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This position is responsible for helping develop plans for community mobility programs and actively managing the County's administration of public transportation grant programs. Working from the context of broadly stated policies and guidelines, the Transportation Planner II helps create programs, methods, and policies to address transportation issues in Tompkins County. The incumbent of this position evaluates community needs and identifies unserved demand for affordable mobility services and works collaboratively with mobility partners to address them.

The incumbent is responsible for providing a broad range of federal, state, and local administrative oversight of grant recipients, including managing and documenting subrecipients' (public transit and paratransit operators) and contractors' adherence to federal regulations and program guidelines as detailed in a federal review occurring every three years (the Triennial Review). Additional work includes monitoring service quality and service activities, and verifying all required documentation is met to approve drawdowns of federal funds. The incumbent conducts periodic ridership and public surveys to gather data to inform recommendations for changes or adjustments. The position acts as liaison between riders and contractor(s), maintains rider files and compiles reports on ridership and associated data regarding service performance. Working closely with the Chief Transportation Officer, this position works to ensure successful delivery of mobility services from subrecipients, contractors, agencies, and other jurisdictions, and serves as an advocate for collaboration and funding at the regional, state, and federal levels. This is a mid-level position focused on transportation issues. The incumbent is responsible for providing professional assistance to boards and committees. Attendance at periodic training events and conferences, sometimes requiring overnight stays out-of-the-County/State, is a requirement of this position. Work is performed under the general supervision of senior professional staff with allowances for a high degree of independent judgment and autonomy in executing assigned tasks. Supervision of professional staff is not a responsibility of this title, although supervision of student interns and support staff may be required on a project or programmatic basis. The incumbent will perform all related duties as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:
